

Executive Leadership Institute at Valparaiso: “Client-Centered Leadership”

Sponsored by the National Association for Public Defense (NAPD)

LOCATION

Valparaiso University Law School
656 S. Greenwich Street
Valparaiso, Indiana

DATES

Monday June 29, 2015 at 8:30 am
Wednesday, July 1, 2015 at 11:30 am

TRAINING MODEL

Leaders will bring their most significant leadership challenge to the institute, where they will spend significant time working on solution strategies. They will explore their challenge through the lens of five areas of executive leadership: principles of client-centered leadership, understanding and using culture, developing other client centered leaders, external leadership, and communication. The heart of the program will be intensive small group work, where coaches will work with leaders to employ the ‘Four Frames’, ‘Strategic Triangle’, and ‘Adaptive Leadership’ models to analyze and solve their challenges. There, participants will share and address each other’s local challenges and successes. With 16 faculty, there is a 3:1 leader: faculty to coach ratio for this training.

HOW TO REGISTER

COST: $450 (includes tuition and all meals for all days)

DEADLINE TO APPLY: Friday, June 5, 2015

EMAIL: Heather H. Hall at heather@publicdefenders.us

You do not need to be an NAPD member to attend this training.

NAPD is pursuing scholarship awards for leaders in underserved areas or offices facing travel restrictions due to financial hardship. Registration is capped at 50, and will be accepted on a rolling basis.

“Valparaiso University Law School is thrilled to be the host to the National Association for Public Defense’s 2015-2016 trainings. We believe in the commitment of our justice system to effective representation of the poor, and look forward to working with NAPD in the years to come.”

- Andrea Lyon, Dean,
Valparaiso School of Law

WHO SHOULD CONSIDER THIS TRAINING

This training is designed to serve new and veteran leaders in state, county, contract and assigned counsel systems. Leaders of investigators, social workers, administrators, and other public defense leaders are welcome to attend.

LOGISTICS

Getting there: Valparaiso Law School is located 55 miles from Chicago, where there are two recommended airports. An hourly bus can be taken from either Chicago airport for a cost of $50 round trip. NAPD and University staff will coordinate shuttles from the bus stop at Portage, Indiana to the hotel in Valparaiso. The law school, at a mile away, is within walking distance of the hotel. Some faculty vehicles will also be available for transportation needs.

ACCOMMODATIONS

NAPD has reserved a limited block of rooms at the Country Inn & Suites, 2020 Laporte Ave, Valparaiso, IN. Rate for attendees is $85.00 night (price guaranteed until June 20, 2015). Contact Heather H. Hall (heather@publicdefenders.us) to reserve one of the limited block rooms. Contact the hotel for a reservation beyond the block rooms: (219) 476-0000
